Police said they went to the service station at 3:15 o'clock Sunday morning, acting on a "tip," and found Rexroth siphoning gasoline from a large truck owned by Miller, which was parked at the side of the gas station.

In Rexroth's car, parked on Buford avenue opposite the Glenn I. Bream garage, they found loot which they said Rexroth had taken from the gas station and placed in the car.

Companion Warns Police

Police listed the stolen articles as an Exide battery, valued at $19.95; a case of motor oil, $8; two inner tubes, $6; two boxes of candy, $5 and two spark plugs, $1.50. Rexroth also had a two-gallon can of gasoline besides the one he was using when caught.

Another youth who had been with Rexroth earlier, police said, furnished the "tip" which led to Rexroth's arrest.

Knowing that Rexroth planned a robbery, this youth went to police because he said he did not want to be involved in it, police said. The latter said Rexroth's companion left Rexroth on Buford avenue, got a ride to the center of town, and went to the borough police office with his information. He also told state police. The investigation and arrest followed.

He had been ill for 16 months and was confined to bed for the last six weeks. Death was due to the infirmities of age and followed several strokes.

Mr. Miller was born in Gettysburg and had lived at the East Middle street address since he was two and a half years old. He attended public schools here and learned the stone-cutting trade which he followed for about 20 years and then he was employed for several years at the former G. W. Weaver and son store on Center square.

Large Crowd Grets Santa; Xmas Street Lights Turned On At 6 O'Clock Saturday

A chilly Saturday evening failed to cool the spirits of several hundred children from Gettysburg and vicinity bent on seeing Santa Claus on his visit to Center square.

The wintry winds rather increased the spirit of the holiday season, as the children, many of them accompanied by parents, began gathering in the square 20 minutes before Santa was due to arrive.

The wind also put "roses" on Santa's cheeks which were almost as bright as the colored lights which were turned on promptly at 6 o'clock, just before the children's friend arrived.

Receive Xmas Candy
There was a sparkle in the old gentleman's eyes too, as the children crowded around him in front of the YWCA to greet him and receive his favors of candy kisses which he distributed to the throng.

Children and adults alike "oh'd" and "ah'd" as the Christmas lights were turned on, making Center square and the business streets adjacent to it a veritable fairyland of Yuletide decoration.

Henry W. Garvin, president of the Chamber of Commerce, threw the switch which turned on the illumination promptly at 6 o'clock.

With the turning on of the lights, recorded Christmas music was played from the Chamber of Commerce office in the Kadel building over a loud speaker system. The Chamber sponsored the Christmas lighting and the visit of Santa Claus, with the borough council assuming the cost of the current consumed by the lights until they are turned off after the holidays.

When Santa arrived in town, he was escorted down Baltimore street to the square in the service truck of the Gettysburg fire department, driven by C. William Zhea. Floodlights mounted on the truck were turned on Santa as he drove first through the streets waving to his friends.

So great was the throng when the truck stopped in front of the YWCA that Santa had difficulty getting through it to the sidewalk in front of the building.

Unknown Motorist Strikes Power Pole

An automobile which state police of the Gettysburg station said was registered in the name of William A. Crawford, 10 Fulton street, Hanover, struck a Metropolitan Edison power line pole Sunday night. Police said Crawford told them he did not know who was driving his car. The automobile was traveling north and attempted to make a left turn into the road through Bittinger's to New Oxford, when it struck the pole at the intersection of the Hanover-Cross Keys highway.

State police were notified and found the car abandoned in the center of the road. They traced the ownership through the license numbers, they said.

HOPE OF WORLD IS FIDELITY, ELKS ARE TOLD

"Fidelity is the only hope of the world of tomorrow," Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president of Gettysburg college, told a capacity crowd at the annual memorial services conducted by the Gettysburg lodge of Elks in the lodge room on York street Sunday evening.

"Fidelity is the sublimest word in the English language and is the fundamental upon which all happiness lies," said the speaker. "This month is a high plateau in the year when all become kind, forgiving, with a desire to make others happy. A great weakness of the age is looking for God in the wrong places. Fidelity is the mouthpiece through which God speaks and is found not in the hands of a few but in all."

"The final test of every human being is to be found in the home, community and in the small circle. Hope lies in the fidelity in the hearts of the humble man and humble woman."

Continuing Dr. Hanson said, "The happiest person found in a wide survey by a couple was a woman with 13 children residing in a log cabin in a desolate area in North Carolina. Her happiness was attributed to fidelity and the consciousness of God."

"You can't be a good Elk without fidelity. We should recognize the hope of the world lies in fidelity of men and women everywhere. America will continue to be great because the power of God is back of us. Let us not fail the land we love or God in whom we trust."

Special music was furnished by the Gettysburg college choir under the direction of Prof. Parker G. Wagnild. Soloists included Miss Martha L. Herman and Miss Helen L. Saul. Miss Nancy Kahl was the pianist.

Glenn L. Bream, exalted ruler of the lodge, presided. He was assisted in the ritualistic part of the services by officers of the lodge.

JENNIE WADE'S NIECE RETURNS FOR VISIT HERE

Mrs. Nellie Virginia (Wade) Coston, 68, of Mesa Verde National Park, Colo., a niece of Jennie Wade, visited Gettysburg and the Jennie Wade House over the week-end. She was accompanied by Mrs. Mildred Wade Lenning of Dayton, Ohio, a grand-niece of Jennie Wade. Mrs. Lenning's father was a brother of Mrs. Coston. Mrs. Lenning's husband and mother made up the remainder of the party.

Mrs. Coston is the daughter of John James Wade, the eldest of the three Wade brothers. There were five children in the Wade family, Georgia, married to John Louis McClellan, a brother of the late George McClellan, of Gettysburg; Mary Virginia or Jennie as she was known to her friends here; John James; Samuel and Harry.

John, Mrs. Coston's father, was a boy of 17 at the time of the Battle of Gettysburg and joined the 21st Pennsylvania Cavalry just prior to the battle. The last time he saw his sister Jennie was on June 28, 1863 when she altered his uniform, which had just arrived. He then rode east on the York pike to join his regiment a few hours before Early's Confederate cavalry entered the town from the west. Mrs. Coston said that her father was present on the 19th of November 1863 and delivered a message to Abraham Lincoln as he sat on the platform in the National Cemetery prior to (Please Turn to Page 5)

DELECTO STOCK AND EQUIPMENT SOLD FOR $739

With a judgment against the proprietors, Michael J. Kuran, Jr., and his brother, John F. Kuran, Gettysburg R. D., of $625, and costs and fees which brought the total to approximately $750, the stock and fixtures of the Delecto Dairy, Center square and Chambersburg street, were sold at sheriff's sale Saturday afternoon for $739.55.

Added to the amount that the sale brought was $12.88 found in the cash register just before the start of the sale, making the total $752.41. The sale was in charge of Sheriff Dorsey J. Schultz, with D. Edwin Benner as auctioneer and Clarence C. Smith as clerk.

The sale was held following a judgment in an action in ejectment and fieri facias, filed against the Kurans by Penn Dairies, Inc., of Lancaster, who held the lease on the store and sub-leased it to the Kurans December 5, 1945. The latter were in arrears on their $125 a month rent for July, August, September, October and November, they asserted.

Prices Are Low

Added to the amount sought for back rent were attorney's fees, commissions and several labor claims. An attorney for Penn Dairies said several of the employees had not been paid and had small claims against the defendants which had to be paid out of the proceeds of the sale.

Stock and equipment brought mostly low prices. The stock, including ice cream in storage in the deep freeze units and other merchandise, was sold first, in small lots. James Arendt, representing Penn Dairies, Charles Milne, proprietor of the Majestic Soda Grill, Carlisle street, and William Ditzler, Biglerville, were the principal bidders on the restaurant equipment.

R. J. DUNKINSON CHARGED AFTER AUTO ACCIDENT

Reginald James Dunkinson, 19, of 229 West Middle street, was arrested by Maryland state police Saturday afternoon on charges of reckless driving and driving without an operator's license, after a car he was driving and one operated by Earl M. Glass, 22, a sailor, of Emmitsburg R. 2, collided on Route 32 a mile west of Emmitsburg at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Dunkinson posted bail for a hearing before Magistrate Jacob E. Baker, Emmitsburg, December 10. Edward J. Smith, 59, of Emmitsburg R. 3, driver of a third car which Dunkinson passed on the right to avoid hitting, was charged with failure to yield the right of way.

Maryland State Trooper Kenneth Bond of Emmitsburg said that Dunkinson was traveling east and Glass was going west. Smith, the trooper said, pulled out of his driveway on the Waynesboro road, and Dunkinson, unable to pass on the left, because the Glass car was approaching, went around Smith on the right, went into a ditch, crossed the highway, struck Glass's car and ended in a field.

Allen L. Morgan, 77, of Emmitsburg, R. 2, riding in the Glass car, suffered abrasions of the left hand and contusions of the chest. Jack Moser, 20, of 66 Stevens street, Gettysburg, who Bond said was on his way to be married at the time of the accident, suffered lacerations. Both Morgan and Moser were brought to the Warner hospital in the Emmitsburg VFW ambulance. Moser was treated and released.

MAN BURNED TO DEATH IN SHACK SATURDAY NIGHT

One man was burned to death in a fire which destroyed his small one-room, frame shack near Blue Ridge Summit Saturday night, and a companion who escaped from the burning building was being held in the Franklin county jail for questioning by state police of the Chambersburg substation.

The badly burned remains of Edward A. "Pop" Sprinkle, 32, of Washington township, Franklin county, were found in the debris of the shack after the Blue Ridge Mountain fire department had cooled the smoldering ruins. Only the trunk, skull and part of one leg remained of the body, state police said.

State Policeman John H. Burrie, of the Chambersburg substation, who is conducting an investigation, said Lewis E. "Red" Ferguson, 33, was held without charge pending the outcome of an autopsy today by S. D. Shull, Franklin county coroner.

Calls Summit Firemen

Burrie said the fire was discovered by Eber Moatz, of 107 East North street, Waynesboro, who was on his way home in his automobile with his wife and child.

The shack was located on old Route 16, about two miles west of Rouzerville toward Blue Ridge Summit. As Moatz, approached the shack, he saw flames coming out of the roof under the eaves. Burrie said Moatz told him that he stopped his car, and ran to the house and kicked open the front door. ## POLICE CATCH COUNTY YOUTH STEALING GAS

Burglary and larceny charges were filed Sunday against Elmer E. Rexroth, 20, of Gettysburg R. 3, after borough police caught him in the act of stealing gasoline from a car at the Ralph Miller Atlantic service station, Buford avenue. He is in jail awaiting a hearing before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore.

Police said they went to the service station at 3:15 o'clock Sunday morning, acting on a "tip," and found Rexroth siphoning gasoline from a large truck owned by Miller, which was parked at the side of the gas station.

In Rexroth's car, parked on Buford avenue opposite the Glenn L. Bream garage, they found loot which they said Rexroth had taken from the gas station and placed in the car.

Companion Warns Police

Police listed the stolen articles as an Exide battery, valued at $19.95; a case of motor oil, $3; two inner tubes, $6; two boxes of candy, $5 and two spark plugs, $1.50. Rexroth also had a two-gallon can of gasoline besides the one he was using when caught.

Another youth who had been with Rexroth earlier, police said, furnished the "tip" which led to Rexroth's arrest.

Knowing that Rexroth planned a robbery, this youth went to police because he said he did not want to be involved in it, police said. The latter said Rexroth's companion left Rexroth on Buford avenue, got a ride to the center of town, and went to the borough police office with his information. He also told state police. The investigation and arrest followed.

Handkerchief Shower Tendered County Woman On 80th Birthday

Mrs. Fanny Hartzell, Fairfield, this afternoon will be the guest at a handkerchief shower in observance of her 80th birthday.

A grandson, Edward Hartzell, is scheduled to deliver the "shower" when he arrives at Mrs. Hartzell's home this afternoon after school.

Edward each day calls at the post-office for his grandmother's mail and delivers it at her home.

Over the week-end 75 Fairfield area residents mailed cards, with handkerchiefs enclosed, at the post-office as a surprise for the Fairfield resident. The "shower" articles were held until today, when all are to be turned over to the grandson when he calls for the mail.

Sunday Mrs. Hartzell was entertained at a birthday dinner by her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hartzell, of Fairfield, and today she is scheduled to attend an-

M. A. MILLER, 81, FORMER PARK GUARD AND VET FIREMAN DIES

Maurice A. Miller, 81, veteran fireman and lodge member and retired Gettysburg National Park guard, died Sunday evening at 5 o'clock at his home, 111 East Middle street. He had been ill for 16 months and was confined to bed for the last six weeks. Death was due to the infirmities of age and followed several strokes.

Mr. Miller was born in Gettysburg and had lived at the East Middle street address since he was two and a half years old. He attended public schools here and learned the stone-cutting trade which he followed for about 20 years and then he was employed for several years at the former G. W. Weaver and son store on Center square.

Park Guard 21 Years

He entered the National Park Service as a laborer June 12, 1911, and helped build stone fences on the battlefield here. In 1914, he was advanced to the rank of concrete builder. His service as a battlefield guard dated from July 1, 1917, to his retirement February 28, 1938. He served first at Oak Ridge and then at Spangler's Spring. At his retirement, he estimated he had walked over 76,000 miles on patrol duty on the battlefield in his 21 years as a guard.

Mr. Miller was a member of St. James Lutheran church and the Gettys lodge of the Odd Fellows. He was a past chief patriarch of Union Encampment of the IOOF and was a trustee of that organization at the time of his death. He was a past president of the local lodge of the POS of A and belonged to local units of the Order of Independent Americans and the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War.

Services Wednesday

One of the last survivors of the Gettysburg Fire company in 1902, Mr. Miller was a former chief and a past president of the local company. He belonged to the Adams County Firemen's Association and was a charter member of the Veterans Firemen's association of Gettysburg. Surviving are his widow, the former Cora Lee Pfeiffer to whom Mr. Miller was married June 23, 1898; these children: Percy S. Miller and Murray L. Miller, both of Gettysburg; and Mrs. Dale Bream of Cash-town. There are four grandchildren, and a brother, Huber B. Miller, Akron, Ohio.

Funeral services from the Bender funeral home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with his pastor, the Rev. Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, officiating. Interment in Evergreen cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday evening after 7 o'clock.

other birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Sheads. Mrs. Hartzell, a sister of Harry Brown, of Fairfield, has been a member of the Sunday school of Zion Lutheran church, Fairfield, for 50 years, and for the past 45 years has been superintendent of the primary department. For many years she was associated with the county Sunday School Association.

With the exception of a few years, she has resided in the Fairfield area all of her life. At 80 she still maintains her own home and does her own housework, and still serves as superintendent of the primary department at the Sunday school. Her husband, Emmert Hartzell, died a number of years ago. She has two children, Earl Hartzell, of Fairfield, and Harry Hartzell, Hagers-town, and two grandchildren, Kenneth Hartzell and Edward Hartzell.

Couple Wed 72 Years

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tawney, 115 Buford avenue, will observe the 72nd anniversary of their wedding day on Tuesday without special celebration. Both are 93 years of age and enjoying their usual good health. For 20 years Mr. Tawney served as street commissioner for Gettysburg borough until his retirement a few years ago.

The couple are the parents of five children, two of whom are living. They are Mrs. Carrie Pretz, Buford avenue, and Mrs. Norman Wolf, wife of Dr. Norman S. Wolf, Fairfield. They have seven grandchildren.

Large Crowd Grets Santa; Xmas Street Lights Turned On At 6 O'Clock Saturday

A chilly Saturday evening failed to cool the spirits of several hundred children from Gettysburg and vicinity bent on seeing Santa Claus on his visit to Center square.

The wintry winds rather increased the spirit of the holiday season, as the children, many of them accompanied by parents, began gathering in the square 20 minutes before Santa was due to arrive.

The wind also put "roses" on Santa's cheeks which were almost as bright as the colored lights which were turned on promptly at 6 o'clock, just before the children's friend arrived.

Receive Xmas Candy

There was a sparkle in the old gentleman's eyes too, as the children crowded around him in front of the YWCA to greet him and receive his favors of candy kisses which he distributed to the throng.

Children and adults alike "oh'd" and "ah'd" as the Christmas lights were turned on, making Center square and the business streets adjacent to it a veritable fairyland of Yuletide decoration.

Unknown Motorist Strikes Power Pole

An automobile which state police of the Gettysburg station said was registered in the name of William A. Crawford, 10 Fulton street, Hanover, struck a Metropolitan Edison power line pole north of Hanover about 10 o'clock Sunday night.

Police said Crawford told them he did not know who was driving his car. The automobile was traveling north and attempted to make a left turn into the road through Bittinger's to New Oxford, when it struck the pole at the intersection of the Hanover-Cross Keys highway. State police were notified and found the car abandoned in the center of the road. They traced the ownership through the license numbers, they said.

James Fleming, one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Fleming, Gettysburg, R. 3, was treated at the Warner hospital for fractures to both bones of his left forearm sustained Saturday in a fall from his crib.

Edward Gastley, 7, of 54 West Railroad street, received treatment for a laceration of the scalp sustained in a fall Sunday.

William Hogan, 19, a student at Mt. St. Mary's college, was treated Sunday for a sprain of the left shoulder received in an automobile accident while rounding a curve.

LARGER MARKER

The historical marker placed on Center square by the Wills house several months ago has been replaced with a marker of similar type, but considerably larger. The marker was furnished by the Pennsylvania State Historical society and placed, with a new and larger ornamental post, by the State highway department.

Henry W. Garvin, president of the Chamber of Commerce, threw the switch which turned on the illumination promptly at 6 o'clock.

With the turning on of the lights, recorded Christmas music was played from the Chamber of Commerce office in the Kadel building over a loud speaker system.

The Chamber sponsored the Christmas lighting and the visit of Santa Claus, with the borough council assuming the cost of the current consumed by the lights until they are turned off after the holidays.

When Santa arrived in town, he was escorted down Baltimore street to the square in the service truck of the Gettysburg fire department, driven by C. William Zhea. Floodlights mounted on the truck were turned on Santa as he drove first through the streets waving to his friends.

So great was the throng when the truck stopped in front of the YWCA that Santa had difficulty getting through it to the sidewalk in front of the building.

Emmitsburg TO SET UP FUND FOR TOWN'S USE IN EMERGENCIES

The loss of a leg by a 14-year-old Emmitsburg soccer star is leading to establishment of a fund to aid all crippled people in the Maryland community.

Lumen Norris, acting as a temporary officer of a committee set up to buy a present for the 14-year-old youngster, Frank Stinson, son of Dr. and Mrs. O. H. Stinson, today announced that a meeting will be held December 12 at the Emmitsburg fire hall to organize a permanent association to raise funds to provide gifts and aid for other Emmitsburg residents who suffer similar misfortunes. The organization, as contemplated, will not be confined only to work among those crippled but would be available for any type of emergency.

The plan got underway when the many friends of Frank Stinson decided that they would pool their resources to buy a gift for the youngster, whose left leg was amputated at the Warner hospital recently. Since so many wished to give to (Please Turn to Page 6)

Clair Tate, Hunterstown, bagged a 11-point buck weighing 150 pounds last Monday in Tioga county.

HOPE OF WORLD IS FIDELITY, ELKS ARE TOLD

"Fidelity is the only hope of the world of tomorrow," Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president of Gettysburg college, told a capacity crowd at the annual memorial services conducted by the Gettysburg lodge of Elks in the lodge room on York street Sunday evening.

"Fidelity is the sublimest word in the English language and is the fundamental upon which all happiness lies," said the speaker. "This month is a high plateau in the year when all become kind, forgiving, with a desire to make others happy. A great weakness of the age is looking for God in the wrong places. Lofty fidelity is the mouthpiece through which God speaks and is found not in the hands of a few but in all."

"The final test of every human being is to be found in the home, community and in the small circle. Hope lies in the fidelity in the hearts of the humble man and humble woman."

Continuing Dr. Hanson said, "The happiest person found in a wide survey by a couple was a woman with 13 children residing in a log cabin in a desolate area in North Carolina. Her happiness was attributed to fidelity and the consciousness of God."

"You can't be a good Elk without fidelity. We should recognize the hope of the world lies in fidelity of men and women everywhere. America will continue to be great because the power of God is back of us. Let us not fail the land we love or God in whom we trust."

Special music was furnished by the Gettysburg college choir under the direction of Prof. Parker G. Wagnild. Soloists included Miss Martha L. Herman and Miss Helen L. Saul. Miss Nancy Kahl was the pianist.

Glenn L. Bream, exalted ruler of the lodge, presided. He was assisted in the ritualistic part of the services by officers of the lodge.

JENNIE WADE'S NIECE RETURNS FOR VISIT HERE

Mrs. Nellie Virginia (Wade) Coston, 68, of Mesa Verde National Park, Colo., a niece of Jennie Wade, visited Gettysburg and the Jennie Wade House over the week-end. She was accompanied by Mrs. Mildred Wade Lenning of Dayton, Ohio, a grand-niece of Jennie Wade. Mrs. Lenning's father was a brother of Mrs. Coston. Mrs. Lenning's husband and mother made up the remainder of the party.

Mrs. Coston is the daughter of John James Wade, the eldest of the three Wade brothers. There were five children in the Wade family, Georgia, married to John Louis McClellan, a brother of the late George McClellan, of Gettysburg; Mary Virginia or Jennie as she was known to her friends here; John James; Samuel and Harry.

John, Mrs. Coston's father, was a boy of 17 at the time of the Battle of Gettysburg and joined the 21st Pennsylvania Cavalry just prior to the battle. The last time he saw his sister Jennie was on June 26, 1863 when she altered his uniform, which had just arrived. He then rode east on the York pike to join his regiment a few hours before Early's Confederate cavalry entered the town from the west. Mrs. Coston said that her father was present on the 19th of November 1863 and delivered a message to Abraham Lincoln as he sat on the platform in the National Cemetery prior to (Please Turn to Page 5)

Weikert shot a 4-point deer; Alvin Lippy, four-point; Eddie Jones, seven-point; Nevin Jones, three-point, and Ben Elme, five-point. When the group left Friday there was eight inches of snow in that section.

Sgt. W. Kurt Duhrkoff, who has been in charge of the Gettysburg substation of the Pennsylvania State Police, was transferred today for special assignment at Hershey, he said. The transfer is temporary, he added. During his absence Cpl. Jack Bartlett will be in charge of the substation.

Man Is Jailed On Drinking Charge

Borough police at 9 o'clock Saturday night arrested Frederick M. McConnell, Biglerville R. 1, on a charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, after, they said, his car had bumped two other automobiles in Center square. He was remanded to the Adams county jail for a hearing before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore this afternoon.

DELECTO STOCK AND EQUIPMENT SOLD FOR $739

With a judgment against the proprietors, Michael J. Kuran, Jr., and his brother, John F. Kuran, Gettysburg R. D., of $625, and costs and fees which brought the total to approximately $750, the stock and fixtures of the Delecto Dairy, Center square and Chambersburg street, were sold at sheriff's sale Saturday afternoon for $739.55.

Added to the amount that the sale brought was $12.86 found in the cash register just before the start of the sale, making the total $752.41. The sale was in charge of Sheriff Dorsey J. Schultz, with D. Edwin Benner as auctioneer and Clarence C. Smith as clerk.

The sale was held following a judgment in an action in ejectment and fieri facias, filed against the Kurans by Penn Dairies, Inc., of Lancaster, who held the lease on the store and sub-leased it to the Kurans December 5, 1945. The latter were in arrears on their $125 a month rent for July, August, September, October and November, they asserted.

Prices Are Low

Added to the amount sought for back rent were attorney's fees, commissions and several labor claims. An attorney for Penn Dairies said several of the employees had not been paid and had small claims against the defendants which had to be paid out of the proceeds of the sale.

Stock and equipment brought mostly low prices. The stock, including ice cream in storage in the deep freeze units and other merchandise, was sold first, in small lots. James Arendt, representing Penn Dairies, Charles Milne, proprietor of the Majestic Soda Grill, Carlisle street, and William Ditzler, Biglerville, were the principal bidders on the restaurant equipment.

R. J. DUNKINSON CHARGED AFTER AUTO ACCIDENT

Reginald James Dunkinson, 19, of 229 West Middle street, was arrested by Maryland state police Saturday afternoon on charges of reckless driving and driving without an operator's license, after a car he was driving and one operated by Earl M. Glass, 22, a sailor, of Emmitsburg R. 2, collided on Route 32 a mile west of Emmitsburg at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Dunkinson posted bail for a hearing before Magistrate Jacob E. Baker, Emmitsburg, December 10. Edward J. Smith, 59, of Emmitsburg R. 3, driver of a third car which Dunkinson passed on the right to avoid hitting, was charged with failure to yield the right of way.

Maryland State Trooper Kenneth Bond of Emmitsburg said that Dunkinson was traveling east and Glass was going west. Smith, the trooper said, pulled out of his driveway on the Waynesboro road, and Dunkinson, unable to pass on the left, because the Glass car was approaching, went around Smith on the right, went into a ditch, crossed the highway, struck Glass's car and ended in a field.

Allen L. Morgan, 77, of Emmitsburg, R. 2, riding in the Glass car, suffered abrasions of the left hand and contusions of the chest. Jack Moser, 20, of 66 Stevens street, Gettysburg, who Bond said was on his way to be married at the time of the accident, suffered lacerations. Both Morgan and Moser were brought to the Warner hospital in the Emmitsburg VFW ambulance.

Moser was treated and released. Dunkinson's car is owned by Clarence M. Swartz, Carlisle R. 5. (Please Turn to Page 2)

MAN BURNED TO DEATH IN SHACK SATURDAY NIGHT

One man was burned to death in a fire which destroyed his small one-room, frame shack near Blue Ridge Summit Saturday night, and a companion who escaped from the burning building was being held in the Franklin county jail for questioning by state police of the Chambersburg substation.

The badly burned remains of Edward A. "Pop" Sprankle, 52, of Washington township, Franklin county, were found in the debris of the shack after the Blue Ridge Mountain fire department had cooled the smoldering ruins. Only the trunk, skull and part of one leg remained of the body, state police said.

State Policeman John H. Burrie, of the Chambersburg substation, who is conducting an investigation, said Lewis E. "Red" Ferguson, 33, was held without charge pending the outcome of an autopsy today by S. D. Shull, Franklin county coroner.

Calls Summit Firemen

Burrie said the fire was discovered by Eber Moatz, of 107 East North street, Waynesboro, who was on his way home in his automobile with his wife and child.

The shack was located on old Route 16, about two miles west of Rouseville toward Blue Ridge Summit. As Moatz, approached the shack, he saw flames coming out of the roof under the eaves. Burrie said Moatz told him that he stopped his car and ran to the house and kicked open the front door. Flames belched forth and drove him back, he told the police officer, and he returned to his car and drove to Blue Ridge Summit, where he now (Please Turn to Page 5)

Ira N. Dummire, assistant county farm agent, said the remaining 10 steers will be taken from the Hamme farm to Lancaster where they will be entered, along with about 350 other steers, in the annual 10-county 4-H baby beef round-up.

RED SHADOW IS SPREADING THRU WESTERN CHINA

Chengtu, China, Dec. 3 (AP)—Chinese Nationalist leaders watched the Red shadow spread into their last major mainland haven of western China today.

The Nationalists tried to get their government going again in this hopelessly overcrowded new refugee capital. But the Communists may not let them stay here very long.

The Reds, plunging deep into western China, cut the highway between Chengtu and Kunming, 390 miles to the south. This official report followed information that the Communists also had cut the route between here and Chungking, 170 miles southeast. Chungking fell to the Reds Wednesday.

The government acknowledged the Reds had pushed into Suifu, 180 miles south of Chengtu and on one of the three highways linking Chengtu with Kunming.

Speculation continued on relations between acting President Li Tsung-jen, in Hong Kong, and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, Chiang, who "retired" in Li's favor last January, has taken over command of defense operations. He is expected to resume the presidency.

Li, who refused Chiang's bid to go to Chengtu, will leave by plane Monday for the United States, it has been announced in Hong Kong. Monday for the United States, it has been announced in Hong Kong. Monday for the United States, it has been announced in Hong Kong.

SAYS PENSIONS FOR ALL LIKELY

Washington, Dec. 3 (AP)—The government's labor statistics chief said today that pensions for everybody seem a sure bet with "the old and the near-old" making up half the nation's voting population.

Ewan Clague, commissioner of labor statistics, said many workers between 40 and 60 are "very properly concerned about their bleak economic future once they become branded as 'too old to work'."

"And these two groups—the old and the near-old—are a very potent force in our society today," Clague said in a speech prepared for the Machinery and Allied Products Institute. "Between them they now account for half the population of voting age and their relative strength is growing each year."

"Because of their mature years and experience they exert moreover a greater than proportionate influence in community affairs and in the councils of labor. In a democratic society, responsible to the needs of its citizens, it is almost a truism to state that their voice will be heard, and that their just demands will be met. So much is self evident."

Clague said medical science has boosted the life expectancy of a white male from 48 years in 1900 to about 66 today. There are now about 11,000,000 men and women aged 65 or over, or one out of every 13 persons, Clague said. He calculated that 50 years from now, in the year 2000, the number will have increased to 21,500,000, or more than one out of every eight persons.

About the only voice a man gets in his family affairs is the invoice.

CORNELL FIVE TRIPS BULLET CAGERS 70-54

Fading in the second half after giving the Cornell quintet a stiff battle throughout the first half, the Gettysburg college cagers lost their initial game of the season 70-54 at Ithaca, N. Y., Saturday evening.

In the first few minutes of play Belber's long shot was followed by a pair of tap-ins by Eydtt. Ashbaugh landed a pair of fouls for Cornell but the Bullets came right back on a foul by Harris and a corner toss by O'Brien to cut the home team's lead to 6-5.

Cornell then went on a scoring spree of eight straight points on a set shot by Chadwick, a goal and foul by Ashbaugh and a lay-up by Eydtt. The Bream-men slowed up their play at that point and started connecting with the result that Belber's set shot knotted the count at 15-all after a little more than 10 minutes of play.

Forge Ahead
Gettysburg took its only lead at 18-16 on a free toss and goal by Harris. Three goals by Goldsborough erased the Bullet margin and Cornell sent its lead to 25-19 before Belber looped a pair of long stabs. A trio of goals by Werner and single twin-pointers by MacNeil and Schaffer gave Cornell a 35-26 margin at half time.

The Bullets never seriously threatened in the final half, Cornell holding a comfortable margin throughout.

Inability to secure the ball off the backboards against their taller opponents proved costly to the locals who were forced to shoot from the outside. Limited to but 44 shots from the field, the Bream-men landed 21 goals.

Mount Next Foe
Bucky Harris again topped the local scorers with 13 tallies while Ashbaugh landed an even dozen for Cornell.

The Bullets will attempt to get back on their winning stride Wednesday evening when Mt. St. Mary's will be met here.

MAJOR LEAGUE TRADES COMING

Baltimore, Dec. 5 (AP)—Not a single big league trade may be announced at this 48th annual minor league baseball convention that opens up here today and does not end until Friday, Dec. 9. But that does not mean that none will be consummated.

It is almost a certainty that at least two, perhaps three, player deals of "sizeable proportions" will be ready to be announced at the major league sessions in New York next week.

One concerns the world champion New York Yankees and the American league cellar-ridden Washington Senators. The Yankees, since the close of the 1949 season, have been trying to wrangle pitcher Rae Scarborough and first baseman Eddie Robinson away from the Nats.

They might as well stop wasting time on Scarborough. He cannot be had. But Robinson is another matter. It would not be at all surprising if the big slugger wore a Yankee uniform next season.

"They (the Yankees) cannot have Scarborough," Washington Manager Bucky Harris emphasized last night. "He is not for sale nor for trade. Why, without him I've got nothing."

Asked whether the same applied to Robinson, Harris replied: "Well, we'd have to get some real good ball players in return."

During World War II, some U. S. military manuals pointed out that men stranded in the wilderness might sometimes get food by catching and eating insects.

It is estimated there are 300,000,000 people in the Western Hemisphere.

Donora Athlete Is Honored Again

Harrisburg, Dec. 5 (AP)—For the second straight year a Donora, Pa., native will be named "Pennsylvania's outstanding athlete of the year."

The Harrisburg Sportswriters Association chose Arnold Galiffa, All-American quarterback on the unbeaten Army football team, to receive a plaque here Jan. 25 from Gov. James H. Duff.

The association's first award last year went to Stan Musial, St. Louis Cardinal outfielder. Both Galiffa and Musial are from Donora.

CLEVELAND AND SAN FRANCISCO PLAY FOR TITLE

New York, Dec. 5 (AP)—Cleveland and San Francisco meet next Sunday for the All-America Football conference championship while the National league's regular season ends with the Chicago Bears trying to overtake the Los Angeles Rams for western division honors.

In yesterday's AAC semifinal playoffs, Cleveland's Browns eliminated the Buffalo Bills, 31-21, with 17,270 fans on hand at Cleveland. At San Francisco, the 49ers outplayed the New York Yankees, 17-7, before 41,393 spectators.

In Sunday's final at Cleveland, the Browns will seek to keep the title they've held since the conference's inception in 1946.

The Rams blew their chance yesterday to wrap up the western division crown in the NFL, losing a 31-27 decision to the Chicago Cardinals at home to the chagrin of more than 74,000 rooters.

Their setback, coupled with a 30-21 victory for the second-place Bears over the Pittsburgh Steelers at Chicago, kept the western race alive.

Rams Need Win
The Rams, who have won seven games, lost two and tied two, still figure to wind up as the team that will meet the Philadelphia Eagles, eastern division winners, in the league playoff for the title December 18.

Their next Sunday opponents will be the Washington Redskins, no ball of fire, while the Bears, who have an 8-3-0 record, must tackle the tough Cardinals. Only a Rams defeat and a Bears triumph can put the Chicagoans on top.

The Eagles, who had cemented first place in the eastern circuit a week before, had a mere workout in crushing New York's second-place Giants, 24-3, at the Polo Grounds.

In other NFL games, Detroit edged the New York Bulldogs at home, 26-27, and at Washington, the Redskins routed Green Bay, 30-0.

The Bears, after stealing a 30-7 lead, almost tossed it off to the Steelers. Pittsburgh's rally included a 97-yard run from scrimmage by Rookie Bobby Gage, who thus tied the league record set by Andy Uram of Green Bay in 1939. Julie Rykovich was a three-time scorer for the Chicagoans.

Famed Halfback Steve Van Buren of the Eagles easily smashed his own league record for rushing, picking up 53 yards to make his season total 1,050. He set the former mark of 1,008 two years ago.

Three Warrior Grid Stars Picked On All South Penn League Team; Three Given Honorable Mention

Gettysburg, Chambersburg and Mechanicsburg high schools dominated the selections of the South Penn Sportswriters association in the choices for the second annual South Penn All-Conference team announced today. Each placed three men with Hershey and Waynesboro each placing one player.

Gaining top honors for Gettysburg were Honorary Captain Charles Kitzmiller, who polled 20 votes as the outstanding tackle in the conference. Kitzmiller was outstanding for the Warriors all season.

Clyde Cleveland, guard, was the only sophomore to be selected for the first team. Cleveland polled 19 votes for his consistent play all season.

The third Warrior player to be honored was Bobby Sachs, quarterback, whose passing played a big role in the success of the Forney-men during the past season. Sachs drew 18 votes.

Chambersburg, repeat champions, put Don Eyer, back; Ray Shrew, end, and Mike Waters, back, on the first eleven. Eyer is a repeater from last year and he and Shrew bacon.

Fried ants, eaten by some people in South Africa, are said to taste like last year and he and Shrew bacon.

COLLEGE FIVES OPEN SEASONS

Basketball shoved football to the sidelines this week-end as three top Pennsylvania court teams turned in important wins.

They are Temple, St. Joseph's and Villanova.

Villanova brushed aside the New York A. C., 83-53. Paul Arizin, a Villanova candidate for All-America honors, was the star. He scored 21 points.

Temple also won easily. Its victory was over Vanderbilt, 55-35.

St. Joseph's college, another strong eastern team, had a close call. It managed only a narrow 61-59 margin over Louisiana State. Paul Senesky paced the field, with 27 points including the winning goal in the last 25 seconds of play.

Gettysburg dropped a 72-54 decision to Cornell. Walt Harris of Gettysburg starred with 13 points. The University of Scranton got a close win from Le Moyne college Saturday night, 56-53, but lost to St. Bonaventure, 48-66 Sunday. City college of New York used the two-platoon system and trounced Lafayette 76-44 at Madison Square Garden.

Upsala and Moravian engaged in a free-for-all basket contest but Upsala got the most, 86-81.

Williams Defends His Title Tonight

Philadelphia, Dec. 5 (AP)—Ike Williams, with everything to lose and very little to gain, defends his lightweight boxing championship tonight in a 15 rounder with Chicago's Freddy Dawson.

Williams is risking his crown against a guy he already has licked twice in non-title engagements and for a share of the cheapest priced title fight in recent years. Top price for the Phil Glasman sponsored bout is $6.50. Some 10,000 fans are expected at Convention Hall for the 10 p. m. (E.S.T.) bell.

In previous matches between the two contestants, Williams knocked out Dawson in four and won a disputed 10 round decision. Dawson earned a draw in an earlier 10 rounder. Williams is a 2 to 1 favorite for tonight's battle.

This may be the last time Wil-

iams defends his lightweight laurels —win, lose or draw. The Trenton, N. J., socker has had lots of trouble getting down to the 135 pound weight limit in recent bouts and may move up into the welterweight ranks.

The Bream-men slowed up their play at that point and started connecting with the result that Belber's set shot knotted the count at 15-all after a little more than 10 minutes of play.

Forge Ahead

Gettysburg took its only lead at 18-16 on a free toss and goal by Harris. Three goals by Goldsborough erased the Bullet margin and Cornell sent its lead to 25-19 before Belber looped a pair of long stabs. A trio of goals by Werner and single twin-pointers by MacNeil and Schaffer gave Cornell a 35-26 margin at half time.

The Bullets never seriously threatened in the final half, Cornell holding a comfortable margin throughout.

Inability to secure the ball off the backboards against their taller opponents, proved costly to the locals who were forced to shoot from the outside. Limited to but 44 shots from the field, the Bream-men landed 21 goals.

Mount Next Foe

Bucky Harris again topped the local scorers with 13 tallies while Ashbaugh landed an even dozen for Cornell.

The Bullets will attempt to get back on their winning stride Wednesday evening when Mt. St. Mary's will be met here.

MAJOR LEAGUE TRADES COMING

Baltimore, Dec. 5 (AP)—Not a single big league trade may be announced at this 48th annual minor league baseball convention that opens up here today and does not end until Friday, Dec. 9. But that does not mean that none will be consummated.

It is almost a certainty that at least two, perhaps three, player deals of "sizeable proportions" will be ready to be announced at the major league sessions in New York next week.

One concerns the world champion New York Yankees and the American league cellar-ridden Washington Senators. The Yankees, since the close of the 1949 season, have been trying to wrangle pitcher Rae Scarborough and first baseman Eddie Robinson away from the Nats.

They might as well stop wasting time on Scarborough. He cannot be had. But Robinson is another matter. It would not be at all surprising if the big slugger were a Yankee uniform next season.

"They (the Yankees) cannot have Scarborough," Washington Manager Bucky Harris emphasized last night. "He is not for sale nor for trade. Why, without him I've got nothing."

Asked whether the same applied to Robinson, Harris replied: "Well, we'd have to get some real good ball players in return."

During World War II, some U. S. military manuals pointed out that men stranded in the wilderness might sometimes get food by catching and eating insects.

It is estimated there are 300,000-400,000 people in the Western Hemisphere.

Donora Athlete Is Honored Again

Harrisburg, Dec. 5 (AP)—For the second straight year a Donora, Pa., native will be named "Pennsylvania's outstanding athlete of the year."

The Harrisburg Sportswriters Association chose Arnold Galiffa, All-American quarterback on the unbeaten Army football team, to receive a plaque here Jan. 25 from Gov. James H. Duff.

The association's first award last year went to Stan Musial, St. Louis Cardinal outfielder. Both Galiffa and Musial are from Donora.

CLEVELAND AND SAN FRANCISCO PLAY FOR TITLE

New York, Dec. 5 (AP)—Cleveland and San Francisco meet next Sunday for the All-America Football conference championship while the National league's regular season ends with the Chicago Bears trying to overtake the Los Angeles Rams for western division honors.

In yesterday's AAC semifinal playoffs, Cleveland's Browns eliminated the Buffalo Bills, 31-21, with 17,270 fans on hand at Cleveland. At San Francisco, the 49ers outplayed the New York Yankees, 17-7, before 41,393 spectators.

In Sunday's final at Cleveland, the Browns will seek to keep the title they've held since the conference's inception in 1946.

The Rams blew their chance yesterday to wrap up the western division crown in the NFL, losing a 31-27 decision to the Chicago Cardinals at home to the chagrin of more than 74,000 rooters.

Their setback, coupled with a 30-21 victory for the second-place Bears over the Pittsburgh Steelers at Chicago, kept the western race alive.

Rams Need Win

The Rams, who have won seven games, lost two and tied two, still figure to wind up as the team that will meet the Philadelphia Eagles, eastern division winners, in the league playoff for the title December 18.

Their next Sunday opponents will be the Washington Redskins, no ball of fire, while the Bears, who have an 8-3-0 record, must tackle the tough Cardinals. Only a Rams defeat and a Bears triumph can put the Chicagoans on top.

The Eagles, who had cemented first place in the eastern circuit a week before, had a mere workout in crushing New York's second-place Giants, 24-3, at the Polo grounds.

In other NFL games, Detroit edged the New York Bulldogs at home, 28-27, and at Washington, the Redskins routed Green Bay, 30-0.

The Bears, after stealing a 30-7 lead, almost tossed it off to the Steelers. Pittsburgh's rally included a 97-yard run from scrimmage by Rookie Bobby Gage, who thus tied the league record set by Andy Uram of Green Bay in 1939. Julie Rykovich was a three-time scorer for the Chicagoans.

Famed Halfback Steve Van Buren of the Eagles easily smashed his own league record for rushing, picking up 53 yards to make his season total 1,050. He set the former mark of 1,008 two years ago.

3 Bullets Put On F-M's All Foe 11

Other members of the all-opponent team included: End, Morris, Lehigh; tackles, Corleto, Western Maryland, and Rosen, Albright; guards, Guntling, Johns Hopkins and Margareta, Western Maryland; center, Numbers, Lehigh; halfback, Gabriel, Lehigh, and fullback, Fieldman, Western Maryland.

Three Warrior Grid Stars Picked On All South Penn League Team; Three Given Honorable Mention

Gettysburg, Chambersburg and Mechanicsburg high schools dominated the selections of the South Penn Sportswriters association in the choices for the second annual South Penn All-Conference team announced today. Each placed three men with Hershey and Waynesboro each placing one player.

Gaining top honors for Gettysburg were Honorary Captain Charles Kitzmiller, who polled 20 votes as the outstanding tackle in the conference. Kitzmiller was outstanding for the Warriors all season.

Clyde Cleveland, guard, was the only sophomore to be selected for the first team. Cleveland polled 19 votes for his consistent play all season.

The third Warrior player to be honored was Bobby Sachs, quarterback, whose passing played a big role in the success of the Forney-men during the past season. Sachs drew 18 votes.

Chambersburg, repeat champions, put Don Eyer, back; Ray Shrew, end, and Mike Waters, back, on the first eleven. Eyer is a repeater from last year and he and Shrewbacon.

Mechanicsburg's trio to gain top honors were Don Badorf, end, 16 votes; Charles Kohlhaas, center, 23 votes, and George Cuthbert, back, 23 votes. Badorf was chosen after additional voting was required to break a tie.

Jim Shindle, Waynesboro's husky tackle, collected 18 votes, while Daniel Kopenhauser, Hershey guard, gained the guard position with 13 votes after additional voting was necessary.

Three additional Gettysburg players were given honorable mention. They include Eugene Davis, guard, eight; Bill Bucher, center, six, and Kenny Biesecker, back, three.

A composite of statistics for the first and second team selections as well as all players given honorable mention will be published Tuesday.

COLLEGE FIVES OPEN SEASONS

(By The Associated Press)

Temple also won easily. Its victory was over Vanderbilt, 55-35.

St. Joseph's college, another strong eastern team, had a close call. It managed only a narrow 61-59 margin over Louisiana State. Paul Senesky paced the field, with 27 points, including the winning goal in the last 25 seconds of play.

Gettysburg dropped a 72-54 decision to Cornell. Walt Harris of Gettysburg starred, with 13 points. The University of Scranton got a close win from Le Moyne college Saturday night, 56-53, but lost to St. Bonaventure, 48-66 Sunday.

City college of New York used the two-platoon system and trounced Lafayette 76-44 at Madison Square Garden.

Williams Defends His Title Tonight

Philadelphia, Dec. 5 (AP)—The Williams, with everything to lose and very little to gain, defends his lightweight boxing championship tonight in a 15 rounder with Chicago's Freddy Dawson.

Williams is risking his crown against a guy he already has licked twice in non-title engagements and for a share of the cheapest priced title fight in recent years. Top price for the Phil Glassman sponsored bout is $6.50. Some 10,000 fans are expected at Convention Hall for the 10 p. m. (E.S.T.) bell.

In previous matches between the two contestants, Williams knocked out Dawson in four and won a disputed 10 round decision. Dawson earned a draw in an earlier 10 rounder. Williams is a 2 to 1 favorite for tonight's battle.

This may be the last time Wil-

iams defends his lightweight laurels—win, lose or draw. The Trenton, N. J., socker has had lots of trouble getting down to the 135 pound weight limit in recent bouts and may move up into the welterweight ranks.

Packard Ultramatic Drive

IMPARTIAL, independent technical observers gave us the idea for the name...

They reviewed the basic principles of this new Packard automatic drive... heard about the 16-year development and test program behind it. They drove it themselves... compared its performance with that of other leading types of drives. Then, out of their own experience, they told us:

"The best way to describe this Packard drive is to say it's the last word in automatic, no-shift control!"

New smoothness, new quietness.
No jerking or "clunking," because there's no gear-shifting anywhere. No "racing engine" sensation, because there's no slippage at cruising speeds.

New economy: Ultramatic Drive saves gas—because there's no slippage at cruising speeds. And thanks to its advanced design, it requires no complicated maintenance.

New safety: No chance of involuntary "down-shifts," which might cause a prolonged skid on slippery pavement. Smooth, gradual engine braking power, when wanted.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

A NEW EXPERIENCE

One reason why I have lived such an interesting and happy life has been the new experiences that have kept coming my way. I have always liked to do different things. New, and unusual things. This is what keeps life adding up.

I recently had published a little book of these daily talks and my publishers asked me to take a trip to Columbus and Cleveland, in Ohio, to sign my book for those who might wish signed copies. Why I accepted was that I wanted to meet those who have been my readers, face to face, for most of my readers I shall never see. Well, it was an inspiring experience. I met scores of people in all walks of life, and it gave me the opportunity to thank them personally for their interest and encouragement.

In Columbus I was interviewed on television, but forgot to take my book along! The smiling lady asked me its name, and I replied, "Better Than Gold." She thought that a rather unusual title and asked me what was better than gold. I replied that she was, that friends were, as well as great books, playgrounds for children, parks, free hospitals for the poor, and any number of other things.

In Cleveland I was also interviewed on the radio by a charming Miss, who was so clever that she made me feel she knew more about me than I knew myself! Then I returned to a big book shop and spent two hours signing more of my books—but, as I did, I said to myself, after each signature: "I am sending out—I know not where—a bit of myself." For that is what every book is that an author signs and sends out into the world, a bit of himself.

On my way home I read a little book, by Dr. Luther Evans, called "A Free Man's Faith," and every once in a while I would drop the book and thank God that I lived in a country where anyone could express his faith, tell other people about it, and exercise it without governmental interference. What an inheritance!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The American Dollar"

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST
STOP! LOOK! WAIT!

There are holes in my gloves, in my shirts, in my socks.

My neckties are wrinkled and frayed.

There's not one good handkerchief left in the box.

And I'm down to an old razor blade.

But, though bare is my bureau and empty each shelf,

These are things which I mustn't now buy for myself.

I am sadly in need of some new underwear.

My pajamas lack buttons and strings.

But, I'm told by my loved ones that I'd be unfair.

At this time, to purchase such things.

I'd be foolish. What's worse I'd be wicked, they state.

With Christmas Day coming, if I didn't wait.

Be patient they tell me, and pass the shops by.

The ads in the papers don't heed.

We are eager at Christmas your wants to supply.

And it helps us to know what you need.

So in raiment worn out I am pledged to remain.

I am waiting for Christmas . . . I hope not in vain.

We understand that Hon. Edward McPherson, Clerk of the House of Representatives, U. S., has tendered to John M. Krauth, Esq., a position in his department, and that Mr. K. has accepted it. This will require Mr. Krauth's presence at Washington during a portion of the winter, but will not interfere with his legal practice, his arrangements being such that he will be able to attend, as usual, to all legal business entrusted to him.

A Card.—The students of the Theological Seminary desire to return their grateful acknowledgement to the kind friends who have in various ways contributed to the completion of the path recently constructed from the Seminary avenue to Chambersburg street; also to the Borough authorities for the efficient aid so courteously rendered by them in this handsome and permanent improvement to the town.

EXPECT STEEL PRICE INCREASE

Pittsburgh, Dec. 5 (P)—Some steel prices almost certainly will increase soon, says an industry spokesman. The spokesman, who asked that his name not be used, declared increasing labor and material costs are rising. And he added all steel companies are surveying the situation with an eye to price adjustments.

"It may not be a general increase but it is almost certain in my mind that some adjustments will be necessary on some lines," the spokesman declared.

His remarks came on the heels of a statement from the head of the nation's fourth largest steel producer which left little doubt consumers ultimately will pay more for steel.

Declaring that production costs are rising, Admiral Ben Moreell, chairman of the board and president of Jones and Laughlin Steel corporation, declared: "It becomes crystal clear that the increased costs for raw materials, for service and for labor which are now being imposed on us, must be balanced by corresponding increases in prices."

Urge Stricter Laws On Sex Offenses

Philadelphia, Dec. 5 (P)—The retiring Philadelphia grand jury for November wants stricter state laws against sex offenders and prosecution of "big shots" in the numbers racket. The jury of 12 women and six men asked that sex criminals be refused bail.

"The citizens of Philadelphia would be shocked could they hear as we have the details of these sordid and revolting crimes," a final presentment handed up to Judge Vincent A. Carroll in quarter sessions court declared. The grand jury reported itself "appalled by the considerable number" of sex crimes in the Philadelphia area.

The presentment complained that although the panel was presented with 200 indictments against minor numbers racket offenders there was no high-level indictment. It asked if Philadelphia police were "unable or unwilling to cope" with the situation.

STRAWBERRIES NEED MULCHING

Strawberry beds should be mulched now to protect the plants through the winter months, according to A. C. Bobby, fruit specialist with the Agricultural Extension Service, University of Connecticut. Usually the mulch is applied before mid-November, but mild weather this fall has made an earlier mulching unnecessary. It also has enabled the plants to continue their development of roots and crowns.

Mulching not only protects the plants from severe winter temperatures but it cuts down heaving which breaks the roots, thereby weakening the plants and resulting in lower yields.

The material used should be one that will not become compact and is free from weeds. The most satisfactory is salt hay or marsh hay. Others that are satisfactory include wheat, oat or rye straw, tree leaves, pine needles or sawdust. Light, fluffy materials such as salt hay and straws can be applied to a depth of four to eight inches.

Whatever the material used, it should be spread over the entire bed, on the plants and between the rows. New spring, when the new strawberry leaves develop, the mulch is pulled into the space between the rows, with some of it allowed to remain on and around the plants. A light covering will not retard plant growth. Mulch remaining on the beds will aid in keeping the berries clean.

The first all-electric radio sets in which the storage battery was eliminated were developed nearly 25 years ago.

SOME FACTS ABOUT SILVERFISH

Damages to clothing, house furnishings, certain paper products, and other starchy materials by silverfish have increased rapidly during recent years. This is explained largely by the fact that dwelling houses are now heated more uniformly around the year and thereby invite not only a longer season of silverfish activity but more intensified feeding throughout buildings.

There have been several erroneous theories about how this pest gains entrance into an inhabited house. In many urban areas there is a circulated belief that coal deliveries are solely responsible for silverfish infestations. Several readers have voiced the idea that the insects are carried on clothing from public meeting places. Still others think cats, dogs or other pets bring them to the house. To date there is not a single bit of evidence to support any of these theories, certainly not that about the pests being stowaways in coal.

It is probable that silverfish eggs or the young or adults are brought into the house in laundry, in deliveries from dry goods and department stores, and in similar vehicles. The pest feeds mainly on paper, bookbindings, wallpaper, and all fabrics which are starched in manufacture or in laundering. Recently housewives are discovering that the damages to rayon which they had attributed to clothes moths are actually the work of silverfish.

There is no excuse for failure to identify this busy insect. It is a wingless, slender insect measuring slightly more than three-eighths of an inch in length when fully grown. Its most distinguishing marks are the three tail-like appendages on the rear of its body, and two long, slender "feelers" in front. It is rarely seen during the day except when an object is removed from where it is hiding. Then it will scurry out of sight so quickly that it cannot be captured. The adults may live at least two to four years.

Silverfish prefer damp, warm basements from where they often follow hot water and heating pipes to first and higher floors. They are often found in new buildings where the walls are still damp from construction. Emphasis on combating the pests where they are propagating is foremost in planning and waging war on this foe.

DDT is proving effective against silverfish, applied in the regular five percent household form, usually in refined kerosene. It should be sprayed sufficiently to moisten the surfaces where the insects travel along shelves, baseboards, and door and window facings, also around pipes leading from one floor to another. If there are dangers of fire from using this DDT oil spray, use the ten percent DDT powder dusted wherever the insects congregate or travel. Sodium fluoride may be used in the same manner as the DDT powder, although it will not remain lethal as long. Both cause death only by direct contact, therefore, they should be blown into cracks and other places where the insects take shelter.

Readers may obtain free on request to the editor directions for preparing poison baits to kill this pest. Please enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope or a three-cent stamp for a copy. At the same time all related household insect questions will be answered.

GARDENERS HAVE JOBS FOR WINTER

Since large birds may chase away the smaller ones, set out more than one feeding station. Place them in warm, sheltered spots, but sufficiently in the open to foil surprise attacks by cats. An important point is that once bird feeding is started, it should be continued regularly throughout the winter.

Trees which were planted recently should be staked securely to prevent them from being blown loose in the ground. Wrap the trunks with burlap or waterproof paper to prevent the bark from drying out. Use wire netting for protection from rabbits.

Mulching material should be prepared without delay, to be put on the perennial border, the garden roses and bulb plantings after the soil is frozen an inch or two deep.

Allow leaves to collect around shrub plantings, to serve as a winter protection.

Prevent delphinium winter rot and slug damage by covering the crown with coal ashes or sand after the ground freezes.

Cover the crowns of the buddleia plants with a half bushel of soil for winter protection.

The pruning of grape vines at this time is recommended. If pruned now, the cut ends will heal before the plants renew their growth early next spring.

Continue planting bulbs until the ground freezes.

Ashes Useful For Lightening Earth

Ashes derived from burning rice or buckwheat coal will take the place of sand for lightening heavy soils. Spread them over the ground about two inches thick as they become available during the winter.

Spade the soil twice to effect a more uniform distribution of the ashes. A single spading usually finds them at the bottom, but even in that position they have their value by providing better drainage. Ashes from other sizes of coal can be used as well, but most gardeners do not relish the task of screening them.

MAN BURNED TO

tified Fire Chief Harry McClain. McClain said he received the call at 11:10 p. m.

Moatz told Burrie that as he ran to the house, he saw a man, later identified as Ferguson, run around the side of the house. Ferguson, his clothes singed and slightly burned, was found later at a neighbor's and taken into custody, for further questioning.

Awakened By Explosion

When the firemen arrived, the building was too far gone to save.

Burrie said Mrs. Haven L. Murdorf, who lives with her husband about 60 yards east of the Sprankle house, told him she was awakened by an explosion. She woke her husband, but by the time he dressed and ran to the scene the firemen arrived.

Burrie said the shack was a one-room affair, covered on the outside with red composition shingles, and lined inside with cardboard. He said Sprankle had been warned previously to provide better insulation for a stovepipe which extended through the roof from a chunk stove, and it is believed that the fire started from this stove, later exploding a five-burner coal oil stove used by Sprankle for cooking. There was no electricity in the place.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

A NEW EXPERIENCE
One reason why I have lived such an interesting and happy life has been the new experiences that have kept coming my way. I have always liked to do different things. New, and unusual things. This is what keeps life adding up.

I recently had published a little book of these daily talks and my publishers asked me to take a trip to Columbus and Cleveland, in Ohio, to sign my book for those who might wish signed copies. Why I accepted was that I wanted to meet those who have been my readers, face to face, for most of my readers I shall never see. Well, it was an inspiring experience. I met scores of people in all walks of life, and it gave me the opportunity to thank them personally for their interest and encouragement.

In Columbus I was interviewed on television, but forgot to take my book along! The smiling lady asked me its name, and I replied, "Better Than Gold." She thought that a rather unusual title and asked me what was better than gold. I replied that she was, that friends were, as well as great books, playgrounds for children, parks, free hospitals for the poor, and any number of other things.

In Cleveland I was also interviewed on the radio by a charming Miss, who was so clever that she made me feel she knew more about me than I knew myself! Then I returned to a big book shop and spent two hours signing more of my books—but, as I did, I said to myself, after each signature: "I am sending out—I know not where—a bit of myself." For that is what every book is that an author signs and sends out into the world, a bit of himself.

On my way home I read a little book, by Dr. Luther Evans, called "A Free Man's Faith," and every once in a while I would drop the book and thank God that I lived in a country where anyone could express his faith, tell other people about it, and exercise it without governmental interference. What an inheritance!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The American Dollar"

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST
STOP! LOOK! WAIT!

There are holes in my gloves, in my shirts, in my socks.
My neckties are wrinkled and frayed.

There's not one good handkerchief left in the box,
And I'm down to an old razor blade.

But, though bare is my bureau and empty each shelf,
These are things which I mustn't now buy for myself.

I am sadly in need of some new underwear.
My pajamas lack buttons and strings.

But, I'm told by my loved ones that I'd be unfair,
At this time, to purchase such things.

I'd be foolish. What's worse I'd be wicked, they state
With Christmas Day coming, if I didn't wait.

Be patient they tell me, and pass the shops by.
The ads in the papers don't need.

We are eager at Christmas your wants to supply
And it helps us to know what you need.

So in raiment worn out I am pledged to remain,
I am waiting for Christmas . . . I hope not in vain.

EXPECT STEEL PRICE INCREASE

Pittsburgh, Dec. 5 (AP)—Some steel prices almost certainly will increase soon, says an industry spokesman. The spokesman, who asked that his name not be used, declared increasing labor and material costs are rising. And he added all steel companies are surveying the situation with an eye to price adjustments. "It may not be a general increase but it is almost certain in my mind that some adjustments will be necessary on some lines," the spokesman declared. "His remarks came on the heels of a statement from the head of the nation's fourth largest steel producer which left little doubt consumers ultimately will pay more for steel. Declaring that production costs are rising, Admiral Ben Moreell, chairman of the board and president of Jones and Laughlin Steel corporation, declared: "It becomes crystal clear that the increased costs for raw materials, for service and for labor which are now being imposed on us, must be balanced by corresponding increases in prices."

Urge Stricter Laws On Sex Offenses

Philadelphia, Dec. 5 (AP)—The retiring Philadelphia grand jury for November wants stricter state laws against sex offenders and prosecution of "big shots" in the numbers racket. The jury of 12 women and six men asked that sex criminals be refused bail.

"The citizens of Philadelphia would be shocked could they hear as we have the details of these sordid and revolting crimes," a final presentment handed up to Judge Vincent A. Carroll in quarter sessions court declared. The grand jury reported itself "appalled by the considerable number" of sex crimes in the Philadelphia area.

The presentment complained that although the panel was presented with 200 indictments against minor numbers racket offenders there was no high-level indictment. It asked if Philadelphia police were "unable or unwilling to cope" with the situation.

STRAWBERRIES NEED MULCHING

Strawberry beds should be mulched now to protect the plants through the winter months, according to A. C. Bobb, fruit specialist with the Agricultural Extension Service, University of Connecticut. Usually the mulch is applied before mid-November, but mild weather this fall has made an earlier mulching unnecessary. It also has enabled the plants to continue their development of roots and crowns.

Mulching not only protects the plants from severe winter temperatures but it cuts down heaving which breaks the roots, thereby weakening the plants and resulting in lower yields.

The material used should be one that will not become compact and is free from weeds. The most satisfactory is salt hay or marsh hay. Others that are satisfactory include wheat, oat or rye straw, tree leaves, pine needles or sawdust. Light, fluffy materials such as salt hay and straws can be applied to a depth of four to eight inches.

Whatever the material used, it should be spread over the entire bed, on the plants and between the rows. New spring, when the new strawberry leaves develop, the mulch is pulled into the space between the rows, with some of it allowed to remain on and around the plants. A light covering will not retard plant growth. Mulch remaining on the beds will aid in keeping the berries clean.

The first all-electric radio sets in which the storage battery was eliminated were developed nearly 25 years ago.

SOME FACTS ABOUT SILVERFISH

Damages to clothing, home furnishings, certain paper products, and other starchy materials by silverfish have increased rapidly during recent years. This is explained largely by the fact that dwelling houses are now heated more uniformly around the year and thereby invite not only a longer season of silverfish activity but more intensified feeding throughout buildings.

There have been several erroneous theories about how this pest gains entrance into an inhabited house. In many urban areas there is a circulated belief that coal deliveries are solely responsible for silverfish infestations. Several readers have voiced the idea that the insects are carried on clothing from public meeting places. Still others think cats, dogs or other pets bring them to the house. To date there is not a single bit of evidence to support any of these theories, certainly not that about the pests being stowaways in coal.

It is probable that silverfish eggs or the young or adults are brought into the house in laundry, in deliveries from dry goods and department stores, and in similar vehicles. The pest feeds mainly on paper, sizing, bookbindings, wallpaper, and all fabrics which are starched in manufacture or in laundering. Recently housewives are discovering that the damages to rayon which they had attributed to clothes moths are actually the work of silverfish.

There is no excuse for failure to identify this busy insect. It is a wingless, slender insect measuring slightly more than three-eighths of an inch in length when fully grown. Its most distinguishing marks are the three tail-like appendages on the rear of its body, and two long, slender "feelers" in front. It is rarely seen during the day except when an object is removed from where it is hiding. Then it will scurry out of sight so quickly that it cannot be captured. The adults may live at least two to four years.

Silverfish prefer damp, warm basements from where they often follow hot water and heating pipes to first and higher floors. They are often found in new buildings where the walls are still damp from construction. Emphasis on combating the pests where they are propagating is foremost in planning and waging war on this foe.

DDT is proving effective against silverfish, applied in the regular five percent household form, usually in refined kerosene. It should be

GARDENERS HAVE JOBS FOR WINTER

Since large birds may chase away the smaller ones, set out more than one feeding station. Place them in warm, sheltered spots, but sufficiently in the open to foil surprise attacks by cats. An important point is that once bird feeding is started, it should be continued regularly throughout the winter.

Trees which were planted recently should be staked securely to prevent them from being blown loose in the ground. Wrap the trunks with burlap or waterproof paper to prevent the bark from drying out. Use wire netting for protection from rabbits.

Mulching material should be prepared without delay, to be put on the perennial border, the garden roses and bulb plantings after the soil is frozen an inch or two deep.

Allow leaves to collect around shrub plantings, to serve as a winter protection. Prevent delphinium winter rot and slug damage by covering the crown with coal ashes or sand after the ground freezes. Cover the crowns of the buddleia plants with a half bushel of soil for winter protection. The pruning of grape vines at this time is recommended. If pruned now, the cut ends will heal before the plants renew their growth early next spring. Continue planting bulbs until the ground freezes.

Ashes Useful For Lightening Earth

Ashes derived from burning rice or buckwheat coal will take the place of sand for lightening heavy soils. Spread them over the ground about two inches thick as they become available during the winter. Spade the soil twice to effect a more uniform distribution of the ashes. A single spading usually finds them at the bottom, but even in that position they have their value by providing better drainage. Ashes from other sizes of coal can be used as well, but most gardeners do not relish the task of screening them.

Lewis' United Mine Workers Begin Return To Mines Today After Walkout

WILL WORK ON SHORT WEEK; BRIGHTER XMAS

Pittsburgh, Dec. 5 (AP)—John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers started helping Santa Claus fill his bag today.

The diggers, idled briefly last week by their fourth walkout of the year, began trooping back to work for the first shifts promptly at 12:01 a. m. (Eastern Standard Time). By the end of the day, all are expected in the pits.

The 480,000 UMW dues payers will work the three-day week decreed by their unpredictable chief until further notice.

They'll Enjoy Christmas
In the nine working days before Christmas, each can earn about $139.50. That's based on their average daily wages of $15.50.

That with some back pay they have coming for work done before last week, means they'll enjoy Christmas. Even if some diggers are broke or short of money, company stores guarantee they can buy food and toys for Christmas.

Though the miners are happy over prospects of working, most of them are anxious to get back on a five-day week. It's almost certain Lewis won't order such a week until he has finally reached a contract with industry. And top operators show no indication of giving in.

Operators Haven't Budged
Top operators haven't budged since Lewis' contract ran out last June 30. They maintain they can't afford to increase wages. And they want Lewis to tighten up the welfare and pension fund which has been financed entirely by the 20-cent-a-ton royalties the operators pay for all coal mined.

The only report of a break in the stalemate has come from a small group of small Kentucky operators. They are truck mine operators who employ only about 800 diggers.

It is reported the Kentuckians are considering signing a contract with Lewis this week. If they do, they'll go on a five-day week. The truck operators insist they have to work a full week to break even. Other mine owners reported the contract being considered by the Kentucky group calls for a 95-cent daily pay boost, bringing the diggers' base rate to an even $15. And the 20-cent royalty payments reportedly would be upped to 35 cents.

Top industry spokesmen minimized the significance of the "Kentucky plan."

Crash Injuries Are Fatal To Two Sunday

RED SURGE IN EUROPE'S COLD WAR IS FADING

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)
The failure of the Communist instigated general strike in Italy is another forceful indication that the western Democracies have contained the Red offensive and are gaining in Europe's cold war.

This was the second serious defeat of its kind the Bolsheviks had suffered in a week, the other being the flop of a Communist-supported general strike in France. The two setbacks are particularly significant in that Italy and France have been the chief Communist strongholds in western Europe. Moscow has leaned heavily on the Red organizations of these two important countries.

The Italian strike was called by Communist leaders ostensibly to protest the death of two peasants in fights with police growing out of invasions of farmlands by squatters. However, the proclaimed purpose of the move was of small moment.

Italians Gain Courage
The real importance rested in the demonstration that the Italian public no longer runs for cover when the Reds crack the whip. This transformation has taken place under Premier De Gasperi since his Christian Democrats defeated the Communists in the 1948 election.

Coincident with this of course has been the development of the grave conflict between the Kremlin and Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia. That fiery Balkan state had been another stronghold of Communism, and Tito was one of Moscow's pets.

So we find the Communist offensive held along a line from north to south through central Europe. But that isn't the whole story by a long shot, for there is bitter discontent among the Russian satellite states. Wholesale purges and liquidations are being carried out in most of these eastern European countries.

The situation is particularly tense in Poland and Czechoslovakia, but Hungary, Rumania and Bulgaria also are having their troubles with disaffection.

Red Tide Turns
As a complement to these developments the defense ministers and chiefs of staff of the 12 Atlantic-pact nations have met in Paris and without fuss or feathers have agreed to a general defense plan involving western Europe and America. This plan still has to be approved by the Atlantic council. After that a billion dollars worth of American armaments will be released for defense purposes in Europe, provided

ATOM-BLINDED PROFESSOR HAS REGAINED SIGHT

Pittsburgh, Dec. 5 (AP)—A college professor, blinded a year ago by atom rays, can see today—thanks to medical science.

He is Dr. Alexander J. Allen, 48, in charge of the University of Pittsburgh's atom-busting cyclotron. Neutron radiation maimed his eyes and he didn't even know it.

"It happened while we were adjusting the cyclotron," Dr. Allen recalled. "The adjustments are a very tedious job. One quick look inside can save you hours of work. Now we leave it strictly alone while it's working."

It was months later before Dr. Allen's vision began to fail. By April of 1949 he could barely distinguish between daylight and dark.

"It was just like walking in a heavy fog—a very heavy fog," he said.

Last July he went to New York's

President Truman certifies that the plan is acceptable to the United States.

Definitely the tide has turned in the European cold war.

Littlestown

Littlestown—Prof. Luther D. Grossman, superintendent of the Tressler orphanage, Loysville, discussed "The Life at the Orphanage" in St. John's Lutheran church on Sunday morning. As the sanctuary is undergoing renovations, this service was held in the Sunday school room which was filled to capacity. The pastor, the Rev. Kenneth D. James presided over the service and Mrs. Luther Myers was organist. The girls' sextet sang the following selections: "Oh! God of Love, Oh! God of Peace"; "Be Still My Soul" and "Lift Thine Eyes."

The pastor announced that the monthly meeting of the council will be held Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. at the church.

Mrs. Charles Stambaugh, North Queen street, will be hostess to the Columbia Presbyterian Medical center. There Dr. Algernon Reese removed the fogged lens of Dr. Allen's right eye. The atom expert now sees with the aid of heavy-lensed spectacles.

Dr. Allen exclaimed: "It's getting better every day. I'm going to have a second operation to have my left eye corrected. I can't go now, though. I'm teaching again. I have a class in nucleonics now. I'll try to have the other operation next summer during vacation."

December meeting of the Mite society of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Chester S. Byers, East Myrtle street, will entertain the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Centenary Methodist church Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The regular business meeting will be held in connection with a Christmas party.

The Rev. Fr. George A. Lavelle read a letter at both masses on Sunday morning inviting the members of St. Aloysius Parish to attend the dedication of the Philip R. McDevitt memorial plaque in St. Patrick's Catholic cathedral, Harrisburg, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Fr. McDevitt was a former bishop of the Harrisburg Diocese. This plaque was sponsored by the Harrisburg diocese of the NCCW and is being dedicated at this time in connection with the redecoration of the Cathedral.

Approximately 30 canvassers made the annual Kingdom roll call in Redeemer's Reformed church on Sunday afternoon. They assembled in the Sunday school room at 1:30 p. m. and were shown two sound film strips, "When the Littlest Camel Kneled" and "Visitation Evangelism." It is expected that the work will be completed this week.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the church will hold its annual Christmas party on Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the social hall. Each member is asked to bring a gift for exchange. An article of food toward the refreshments will also be contributed by each member. The annual election of officers will be held. The nominating committee includes: Mrs. Samuel H. Higinbotham, Mrs. Ralph Reaver and Mrs. Clement Sneeringer. Mrs. Ralph Reaver and Mrs. Frank E. Reynolds constitute the program committee for the party. The pastor, the Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, announced at the service on Sunday morning that an election for two elders and two deacons will be held in connection with the morning worship service next Sunday.

Mrs. Bernard Duttrier was the leader of the Christian Endeavor society of Christ Reformed church on Sunday evening. Glenn Unger was in charge of the song service and Fred Warner was pianist. Scripture was read by Harold E. Shoemaker and prayer was offered by Mrs. Bernard Duttrier. Miss Ruth Sterner read a poem. Special vocal music was furnished by Mrs. Harold E. Shoemaker and Mrs. LeRoy W. Berwager accompanied by Fred Warner. "Little Known Characters of the Old Testament" was the topic of the evening which was discussed by Lewis Bair. Business was in charge of the president, Mervin K. Myers with the secretary's report by Ruth Sterner. Plans were made for the Loyalty program which will be held next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in the church auditorium in observance of the 62nd birthday of the Pennsylvania Christian Endeavor Union. The Rev. Theron Snyder, pastor of the Glen Rock Reformed church will be the guest speaker and Harold E. Shoemaker will be the leader. In cooperation with this program, the catechetical class will meet at 6:30 p. m. in the Sunday school room.

The weekly union vesper service sponsored by the Littlestown Ministerium, was held in St. Paul's Lutheran church on Sunday evening. The host pastor, the Rev. David S. Kammerer conducted the service. Psalm 24 was the responsive reading and he read the Christmas story from the second chapter of St. Luke. An advent sermon was delivered by the Rev. Kenneth D. James on the theme, "Why the Christ of Bethlehem Appeals to Me!" Announcement was made that the closing service of the present series will be held next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Centenary Methodist church, when the Rev. John C. Brumbach, pastor of Christ and St. Luke's Reformed churches, will preach the sermon. Union vesper will be resumed with the annual preaching mission Sunday, January 8.

Pittsburgh, Dec. 5 (AP)—A college professor, blinded a year ago by atom rays, can see today—thanks to medical science.

He is Dr. Alexander J. Allen, 48, in charge of the University of Pittsburgh's atom-busting cyclotron. Neutron radiation maimed his eyes and he didn't even know it.

"It happened while we were adjusting the cyclotron," Dr. Allen recalled. "The adjustments are a very tedious job. One quick look inside can save you hours of work. Now we leave it strictly alone while it's working."

It was months later before Dr. Allen's vision began to fail. By April of 1949 he could barely distinguish between daylight and dark.

"It was just like walking in a heavy fog—a very heavy fog," he said.

Big Parade, Lighting Ceremony And Massed Choir On Program At Biglerville Tuesday Night

Tomorrow night the Christmas season will arrive in Biglerville officially and with a flourish.

Last minute details and arrangements for the big, float-studded parade and the impressive lighting ceremony to follow are being rushed to completion. This year's yuletide welcome is expected to exceed in every respect the similar event that was held last year by the Biglerville Businessmen's club.

At least 30 floats will participate in the parade that will be led off by the parade's grand marshal, Ralph Shetter and the Upper Adams Joint high school band. The parade will move at 7:30 p. m., regardless of weather, after forming on Fourth street and travel on High street to West Hanover, on to Main street and up Main street to Rice avenue, the dispersing point.

Massed Choir To Sing
Commercial floats and the float entered in the parade by the Upper Adams County Lions club will not compete for the prizes totaling $60. Judges will be E. D. Bushman, Arendtsville; Dewey McCauslin, Bendersville; and William Shields, Gettysburg.

Following the parade attention will focus on the lighting ceremony to take place at the square. Highlight of this event will be the singing of a massed choir made up of singers from the 27 churches in the Upper Community.

The complete program has been revealed by the program chairman, Mrs. Marion Harbaugh. The program follows: Invocation, Rev. Henry W. Sternat, pastor of the St. Paul's Lutheran church; lighting ceremony, Rev. Nevin R. Frantz, pastor of the Evangelical Reformed church; "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," "O Little Town of Bethlehem," and "Silent Night, Holy Night" by the massed choir; the Christmas Story as revealed in the scriptures by the verse choir; band selection, "Christmas Festival" by Upper Adams Joint high school band; "It Came Upon the Midnight (Please Turn To Page 3)

Advance Hour For Meeting Of Lions

The regular meeting of the Upper Adams Lions club will be held Tuesday evening at 6 p. m., in the Biglerville grade school building. The special high school guest to be honored at this meeting will be Clark Heller, a member of the senior class in the local high school and an active participant in various extra-curricular activities of the school.

This meeting is being held a half hour earlier than usual to enable the Lions to participate in the parade and lighting ceremonies marking the official start of the Christmas season in Biglerville.

At this meeting the Lions will turn in their suggestions on worthwhile projects that might be supported by the special account funds of the Upper Adams County Lions club. This fund, raised through the various club projects and with the backing of the community, is to be used for the improvement of Upper Adams county and to gain more happiness for those living in it, especially those who have little for which to be happy.

Functioning as the committee for this meeting is the Veterans' committee made up of Lions Lloyd Garretson, Donald Shetter and Donald Horst.

Upper Adams Band Wins High Rating

The Upper Adams Joint high school band won a rating of excellent in the ninth annual band contest Saturday morning in Harrisburg. Twenty high school bands from central Pennsylvania participated in the event.

The bands were judged on appearance, playing and marching. Under appearance were judged deportment, posture and neatness. Playing counted for most and included tone, intonation, balance and expression. Checked for in marching were lines, step and cadence.

Band fronts were judged for appearance, marching and performance. Appearance included neatness, cleanliness, and uniformity. Considered under marching were posture, strut and rhythm. Points checked under performance were originality, smoothness and continuity.

All bands were awarded certificates and plaques. Following the parade band members were treated to a movie in the State theater.

Plan To Rearrest Acquitted Bartender

Philadelphia, Dec. 5 (AP)—Philadelphia authorities plan today to rearrest James Comer. 31-year-old bartender acquitted last Thursday of murder and manslaughter charges in the death of a 53-year-old sales executive.

A warrant, charging Comer with assault and battery and aggravated assault and battery, was issued by Judge Joseph Sloane after Comer was freed by an all-woman jury in the death of Hubert E. Madden last March 26.

Judge Sloane, who presided at Comer's trial, criticized the jury for its verdict which he called a "miscarriage of justice."

The Commonwealth contended that Comer visited the club where he was employed as a bartender, beat and kicked Madden to death during a drunken brawl. The jury concluded that acute alcoholism contributed to Madden's death.

HEAVY KILL OF DEER REPORTED

Harrisburg, Dec. 5 (AP)—Deer hunters are having greater success during the current buck season than in 1948, says the state Game Commission. The kill of legal deer is greater in all sections of the state, with the exception of the southwestern counties.

"The deer were reported to be in excellent flesh," the commission said in its weekly newsletter. "Antlers, however, were generally reported as small, except in northwestern Pennsylvania where the racks were described as large."

Three persons were listed by the commission as having lost their lives due to gunfire with another 11 injured in the 11-day season which closes next Friday.

The final score for the deer season will depend on how many mounds can get into the field and the presence or absence of snow. The weatherman at Harrisburg said enough snow fell yesterday to make tracking easy in most of the northern tier.

There are plenty of bucks in the woods, the commission said, and a great deal of does. Antlerless deer are legal prey for next Saturday only.

The one-month season for trapping otters and muskrats ends next Saturday noon. The commission warned that game protectors are intensifying a campaign against the poaching of muskrats. Trapping of that furbearer becomes legal Jan. 1 for one month.

"REC" LEADERS TO MEET
Harrisburg, Dec. 5 (AP)—Discussion of spectator drinking and gambling at school-boy athletic events is expected to occupy a major portion of a statewide meeting of recreation leaders here Dec. 9-11.

Also up for discussion by the Pennsylvania State Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation directors are ways of eliminating unsportsmanlike conduct by the fans.

CZECH BISHOPS THREATEN WAR OVER RELIGION

Prague, Dec. 5 (AP)—Czechoslovakia's Roman Catholic bishops have expressed new defiance of the Communist government's church control laws. They warned a religious fight may result if the government does not modify its stand.

The bishops announced yesterday they could not submit to laws which they asserted violate the laws of God and destroy religious freedom.

In a 2,200-word letter to the government, dated November 17 and made public yesterday, the bishops asked the Communist regime to reconsider the new church control law of November 1 and decrees issued under it "and to revise them so as to be in agreement with the constitution of the church."

The bishops said the government would be responsible for any "religious fight" that might arise.

Declaring that Prime Minister Antonin Zapotocky had bluntly rejected all requests for church law revisions with "undisguised threats," the bishops said:

Willing To Fight
"x x x In this country of the holy martyrs x x x there are enough people and priests who are willing, together with their bishops, to sacrifice everything for the right of God, the right of the church and for a true freedom in religious life."

Czechoslovakia's population of 13,000,000 includes 9,000,000 Catholics. The church control law, adopted by Parliament October 14 over strenuous Catholic objections, applies to all denominations.

The new law gives the government final power over appointment of priests, administration of churches and religious education.

The request for revision of the law governing the church cited paragraph 17 of the Czech constitution, which the bishops said stated: "Everyone shall be free to carry out the acts in connection with any religious denomination."

The letter did not prescribe a specific course of action by priests or those in lesser positions. On November 24 the bishops published a letter to Czechoslovakia's priests ordering them not to accept government orders "which are against God's law." The November 24 letter said priests who "betray Christ in this most critical time" would be deprived of church rights, including the right of hearing confessions.

The letter to the government was signed by all members of the bishops' council, including the nation's primate, Archbishop Josef Beran of Prague, who says he has been interned in his palace here since last June.

Chemical Engineers Seek Better Living

Pittsburgh, Dec. 5 (AP)—Some of the nation's top engineers are here discussing ions, thermal units and acid wastes. But their complicated talk today means simpler living for you tomorrow.

They're attending the 42nd annual meeting of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers Unveiled before them are some of the latest facts known about the peaceful uses of atomic energy, ways to stop stream pollution and how to get rid of heat in a hurry.

The four-day gathering began yesterday but the technical talks didn't get underway until this morning. First speaker on the program was W. H. McAdams, professor of chemical engineering at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

His subject—problems of heat transfer—is one of the major stumbling blocks in the way of science today. Armed with findings disclosed by McAdams and other speakers, the visiting engineers hope to erase many a problem on their drawing boards.

High Winds Kill 10 In Germany

Berlin, Dec. 5 (AP)—Ten persons were killed and 16 injured yesterday when winds up to 80 miles an hour toppled war-weakened buildings across north Germany. Five persons died in Berlin.

Shipping was warned of the storm. More than 100 vessels sought shelter in the mouths of the Weser and Elbe rivers. Hamburg was one of the hardest hit centers. The new 500-foot mast of the radio station there buckled and fell. Hundreds of persons were evacuated from their homes because of the danger of collapse. Hundreds of fallen trees blocked roads, snarled traffic and hampered rescue squads.

There are no railroads in Afghanistan.

Big Parade, Lighting Ceremony And Massed Choir On Program At Biglerville Tuesday Night

Tomorrow night the Christmas season will arrive in Biglerville officially and with a flourish.

Last minute details and arrangements for the big, frost-studded parade and the impressive lighting ceremony to follow are being rushed to completion. This year's vanguard welcome is expected to exceed in every respect the similar event that was held last year by the Biglerville Businessmen's club.

At least 30 floats will participate in the parade that will be led off by the parade's grand marshal, Ralph Shetter, and the Upper Adams Joint high school band. The parade will move at 7:30 p. m., regardless of weather, after forming on Fourth street and travel on High street to West Hanover, on to Main street, and up Main street to Rice avenue, the disbanding point.

Massed Choir To Sing
Commercial floats and the float entered in the parade by the Upper Adams County Lions club will not compete for the prizes totaling $60. Judges will be E. D. Bushman, Arendtsville; Dewey McCauslin, Bendersville; and William Shields, Gettysburg.

Following the parade attention will focus on the lighting ceremony to take place at the square. Highlight of this event will be the singing of a massed choir made up of singers from the 27 churches in the Upper Community.

The complete program has been revealed by the program chairman Mrs. Marion Harbaugh. The program follows: Invocation, Rev. Henry W. Sternat, pastor of the St. Paul's Lutheran church, lighting ceremony, Rev. Nevin R. Prantz, pastor of the Evangelical Reformed church, "Hail, the Herald Angels Sing," "O Little Town of Bethlehem," and "Silent Night, Holy Night" by the massed choir, the Christmas Story as revealed in the scriptures by the verse choir, band selection, "Christmas Festival" by Upper Adams Joint high school band, "It Came Upon the Midnight Snow" (Please Turn To Page 3)

Advance Hour For Meeting Of Lions

The regular meeting of the Upper Adams Lions club will be held Tuesday evening at 6 p. m., in the Biglerville grade school building. The special high school guest to be honored at this meeting will be Clark Heller, a member of the senior class in the local high school and an active participant in various extra-curricular activities of the school.

This meeting is being held a half hour earlier than usual to enable the Lions to participate in the parade and lighting ceremonies marking the official start of the Christmas season in Biglerville.

At this meeting the Lions will turn in their suggestions on worthwhile projects that might be supported by the special account funds of the Upper Adams County Lions club. This fund, raised through the various club projects and with the backing of the community, is to be used for the improvement of Upper Adams county, and to gain more happiness for those living in it, especially those who have little for which to be happy.

Functioning as the committee for this meeting is the Veterans committee made up of Lions Leo D. Garver, Donald Shetter and Donald Ho.

Upper Adams Band Wins High Rating

The Upper Adams Joint high school band won a rating of excellent in the ninth annual band contest Saturday morning in Harrisburg. Twenty high school bands from central Pennsylvania participated in the event.

The bands were judged on appearance, playing and marching. Under appearance were judged deportment, posture and neatness. Playing counted for most and included tone, intonation, balance and expression. Checked for in marching were steps, step and cadence.

Band fronts were judged for appearance, marching and performance. Appearance included neatness, cleanliness, and uniformity. Considered under marching were posture, strut and rhythm. Points checked under performance were originality, smoothness and continuity. All bands were awarded certificates and plaques. Following the parade band members were treated to a movie in the State theater.

If you want to hang cookies on your Christmas tree make a small hole in the top of each before baking. But be sure the hole is large enough so that it won't close during baking.

team, has voted to honor the members of the high school varsity club later.

Plan To Rearrest Acquitted Bartender

Philadelphia, Dec. 5 (AP)—Philadelphia authorities plan today to rearrest James Comber, 31-year-old bartender acquitted last Thursday of murder and manslaughter charges in the death of a 53-year-old sales executive.

A warrant, charging Comber with assault and battery and aggravated assault and battery, was issued by Judge Joseph Sloane after Comber was freed by an all-woman jury in the death of Hubert E. Madden last March 26.

Judge Sloane, who presided at Comber's trial, criticized the jury for its verdict which he called a "miscarriage of justice."

The Commonwealth contended that Comber visited the club where he was employed as a bartender, beat and kicked Madden to death during a drunken brawl. The jury concluded that acute alcoholism contributed to Madden's death.

NORTH OF THE BORDER
When Oklahoma's footballers wrapped Missouri, 27-7, the Mexico, Mo., quarterback club attended.

A few days later, sooner Coach Bud Wilkinson received this letter from the club president: "Dear Mr. Wilkinson: We understand you have been offered the coaching job at the University of Minnesota. After careful consideration our club has endorsed this movement 100 per cent."

Maj. Gen. Gray To Speak Here In March

Major General Carl N. Gray, veterans' affairs administrator, a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, will be one of the principal speakers at Gettysburg college's annual Interfraternity week-end, March 10, 11 and 12.

Walter Garman, Baltimore, president of the alumni interfraternity conference, made this announcement at the winter meeting of the conference Saturday afternoon at the Shetter House. Three members of each undergraduate chapter on the campus were guests of the alumni conference members at the dinner which was followed by reports and discussion.

John Barr, president of the student interfraternity council, reported on the national interfraternity conference meeting held in Washington, D. C., November 25, 26 and 27. He told the group that the national body had recommended by a vote of 36 to 3 that all fraternities abolish color, creed, and religion barriers from their constitutions.

Dave Scheidt, who also attended the conference, gave a brief report. Many peoples of the world find the eating of insects essential to surviving.

INFLATION ERA IS DISCOUNTED; FEAR SPENDING

Washington, Dec. 5 (AP)—Warnings of inflation are fluttering again in the capital, but most of the economic lookouts discount any immediate peril. They see fairly steady, prosperous sailing throughout 1950.

President Truman is not expected to revive his demands of a year ago for drastic "standby" anti-inflation powers. This is despite the rise in credit to new peaks, the firming of prices, and the fall improvement in business and employment.

Government economists and some private experts report the revival of an "inflationary potential." They base the report mainly on heavy in-the-red spending by the government and on the new round of wage-and-pension increases.

Expect Good Business
Yet few of them expect a major price whirl in the next 12 months. The "disinflation" is not over for some important industries. Many economists believe the long-range hazard is deflation.

A consensus of the forecasts might boil down to this:
1950 will be another year of high income and high production, on a level of prosperity not too unlike 1949 and not far below record-smashing 1948.

Inflation warnings have been uttered by two bank presidents and other witnesses before Senator Douglas' (D-Ill.) Economic subcommittee. These have stirred speculation whether Mr. Truman will again seek controls over prices, wages, commodity trading and materials allocation.

The decision, if it is not already made, will come in the next month as the President prepares his annual economic message to the new session of Congress.

Persons in close touch with White House planning say a new bid for controls is unlikely and, even if one comes, would be turned down by Congress.

Red Ink Spending
This view is voiced by Senator Flanders of Vermont, a Republican manufacturer and a member of the Senate-Economic committee who usually votes with the Democratic majority.

"I don't see any reason for any inflation controls at all at this time. I think we are on a pretty even keel right now."

The committee may recommend, however, some change in the Federal Reserve board's powers over credit and interest—a topic which touched off last week's squabble between Secretary of the Treasury Snyder and Federal Reserve Board member Marriner Eccles.

Meantime all hands admit that it is inflationary for the government to be pouring into the public's hands $5,500,000,000 a year more cash than

Abraham Lincoln Descendant Dies

Reading, Pa., Dec. 5 (AP)—A descendant of Abraham Lincoln died here on Friday at the age of 73. He was Harrison T. Lincoln, caretaker at the Pendera Park fieldhouse of Reading.

Lincoln was for 30 years a democratic party worker, and was a member of the Berks county prison board. He is survived by a son, J. Lester Lincoln, of Womelsdorf, and a daughter, Mrs. Catherine Crammes, of Lancaster.

Burial will be in Schwarzwald cemetery, Exeter township, where President Lincoln's grandfather lived.

Turnpike Extension Ahead Of Schedule

Harrisburg, Dec. 5 (AP)—Work on the 100-mile eastern extension of the Pennsylvania turnpike is running 40 construction weeks ahead of schedule.

The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission said that as a result the opening of the road may come in advance of the original Dec. 1, 1950 estimate.

More than 21 miles of the new toll road, running from Middletown to King of Prussia near Philadelphia, has already been paved, the commission said. It added that 44 per cent of the $75,000,000 project has been graded with provisions made for draining and bridge construction.

Reviewing other progress on the new toll road extension, the commission said piers for a high-level bridge over the Susquehanna river south of Harrisburg are now in place.

It takes away from the public. That is the estimated rate of red ink spending for this fiscal year, ending next June 30.

HOT, FIERY GAS Stomach Like A Furnace

A Gettysburg man said recently that his stomach used to burn like a "gas factory!" That is, when he ate a meal it seemed to turn right into hot gas. He was always bloated, had gas pains daily. But now this man says he is FREE OF STOMACH GAS and he says the change is due to taking CERTA-VIN. His meals agree with him.

CERTA-VIN is a new formula. Taken before meals it works with your food, expels the gas, and thus you get the fullest good out of your meals. It contains Ten Great Herbs, plus vitamin B and Iron. Besides relieving gas, it also enriches the blood (with iron) and makes stronger nerves (with vitamin B). Miserable people soon feel better all over. So don't go on suffering! ## PARALLELS AND CONTRASTS IN MAJOR PARTIES

By L. U. LESLIE

Harrisburg, Dec. 5 (AP)—Pennsylvania's two political parties present both close parallels and sharp contrasts as slate-making for the 1950 election gets under way.

The parallels are:
1. U.S. Senator Francis J. Myers, Democrat, and Gov. James H. Duff, Republican, have no opposition, so far, for the party nomination for the U.S. senatorship. Both are expected to make the race but neither has committed himself.

2. The field for the nomination for governor is wide open in each party. There is a long list of possible candidates in both parties for leaders to consider when they get around the conference table to make up a ticket.

Contrasts Within

The contrast is provided by the situation within the Republican and Democratic parties.
